

Welcome to our farm!

We make our home here in order to care for this land and our neighbors by growing nutritious produce to sustainably feed our community

Your hosts are counting on you to have a fun & safe time!

FARM RULES

Remain in venue areas only

Do not enter growing fields, non-venue greenhouses, barns, or any area that is not in our venue. Our neighbors are counting on our plants to produce healthy food for families. Maps are available.

No BYOB—No self-served alcohol

No flasks, no outside alcohol of any kind on property (including parking area).
The only alcohol that may be consumed on our property during events is that which is served by your host's bartender.

No pets except service animals

No firearms - regardless of CPL No knives, swords, arrows, etc. No fireworks, lanterns, etc.

“A private property owner has the right to prohibit individuals from carrying firearms on his or her property, whether concealed or otherwise, and regardless of whether the person is a CPL holder. If a person remains on the property after being told to leave by the owner, the person may be charged with trespassing (MCL 750.552).”

Smoking in designated areas only

Your hosts can't wait to see you!
